

PTSD 'Highly Prevalent' in Adults With Congenital Heart Disease, Says Study

News
shelagh
January 2, 2016
0

Adults with congenital heart disease (ACHD) may be at increased risk for post-traumatic stress disorder (PTSD), new research suggests...

To read the article please click HERE.